

Don't hate the man you owe, my son, Don't rave and say you'll show him;
The best way to get even is To pay him what you owe him.

UNLAWFUL SHIPMENT OF QUAIL.

Friday afternoon in the Federal Court at Covington United States District Attorney Thomas D. Slattery instituted suits against B. F. Barclay and others of Bracken county and Dempsey Cooper of this county, charging unlawful shipment of quail.

NEW MINISTER AT GERMANTOWN.

Elder Oscar Keller of Lexington has been called to the pastorate of the Germantown and Mt. Olivet Christian churches and will assume his duties at once. Mr. Keller has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Christian church at Johnsville, Bracken county.

OFFICER FIZER INJURES LEG.

Officer Dudley Fizer fell between the ties on the C. & O. railroad bridge over Limestone creek Friday night and injured one of his legs so seriously that he was unable to be on his beat yesterday. Mr. Pearl McDonald is filling his place during his absence.

HAS EMERGENCY STAMPS.

Deputy Internal Revenue Collector W. P. Lindsay now has a full supply of emergency stamps, namely, documentary, proprietary and wines and cordials.
These stamps may also be purchased at the postoffice substations.

TOBACCO GROWERS' MEETING.

The tobacco growers' meeting held in Squire Bauer's office at the court house Saturday was, because of the poor representation of farmers, adjourned to meet next Saturday.

POLICE COURT.

James Dessemly was tried in Police Court Saturday for carrying concealed and deadly weapons and he was held over to the grand jury, his bond being placed at $100.

"THE KIRK"

Maysville's $40,000 Modern Flat Building Finished and Every Floor Rented.

The elegant and imposing flat building, the first modern appointed building of the kind ever erected in this city, is finished, ready for occupancy and the eight flats will this week glow with electric lights and be made cozy and comfortable by steam heat. As our residents can see, it is a most imposing structure, beautifully designed by Weber, Werner & Adkins of Cincinnati, and constructed in the best style and manner by McDowell & Case, Maysville contractors.

Its four stories loom up gracefully, and altogether, it is a beautiful improvement and addition to that fast growing section of Maysville, adjacent to the C. & O. depot.

The new flat is the property of Mr. E.
T. Kirk, vice president of the State National Bank, and the owners are to be commended for their enterprise and good taste, both for investing such a big sum of money and for the location and style of building erected.

Each flat is a cozy home in itself, with water, heat, light and every convenience of closet and kitchen. The kitchenettes are little gems and the baths and matrons will bless Mr. Kirk for saving them untold thousands of steps made in the old way.

The new flat is built of red brick, with white trimmings. The stairways are of easy ascent. The finishings are cheerful and the entire interior is very inviting. Outside, too, is completely finished, and graded, and when spring comes the shrubs and flowers will add nature's garlands to this handsome structure.

Following are the tenants who will occupy the several flats:

First Floor—Mr. and Mrs. H. C.

Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. D. Heehinger.

Second Floor—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene

Merz, Mr. and Mrs. Rees Kirk.

Third Floor—Mr. and Mrs. H. S.

Howland, Mr. and Mrs. LeWright

Browning.

Fourth Floor—Judge W. H. Rees. The other center is an unknown "Million Dollar Mystery."

B-R-R-R!

The government thermometer at Mrs.
Mary Marsh's residence in Forest avenue registered 7 above zero this morning, making it the coldest morning of the winter season.

Old Winter is here, all right. Four inches of snow fell yesterday and the ground is covered with the "beautiful," the sixth of the season.

UNANIMOUS

Was the Call For Rev. A. F. Stahl To Continue As Pastor of the Christian Church—Great Worker and Beloved Minister.

Yesterday was an important and enjoyable day at the Christian church.
Though the heavy snow may have detained many yet the exceptionally large audience, the equal, if not the best, during the year, gave evidence of general interest in the action the members were to take in calling their minister, Rev.
A. F. Stahl, to serve another year.

It had been previously announced that such action would be taken for several weeks ago the church officers unanimously voted to make such a recommendation to the church.

For the past two years Rev. A. F.
Stahl has been prominent in his church work and he should feel highly complimented that in the large audience present yesterday there was not a dissenting vote to his being called another year.

There have been frequent additions to the church during the past two years. A heavy church debt was liquidated and many improvements made both on the church and parsonage.

The plans for future improvements are already under consideration. The church officers consider the church to be in as good a condition as it has ever been.

As announced in Saturday's Ledger, a general canvass of the membership was made yesterday to secure pledges for the next year's local and missionary support. The twenty-five men of the church who were assigned sections were with two exceptions, able to cover their sections on Sunday afternoon and reported favorable receptions and good and encouraging responses from the general membership.

Rev. Stahl's especially strong forte has been Bible school work. His school having enjoyed a very healthy growth during the past two years.

SALES 328,250 POUNDS

Sold On Maysville Market First Week —Average $8.43—Satisfactory Showing Considering Conditions.

Supervisor's Report.

Maysville, Ky, December 12, 1914.
The Maysville market sold the past week 328,250 pounds for $27,693.68, an average of $8.43.

This is seemingly a very poor price, but when it is remembered it was the last cutting—the bottom of barns full of house burned, and nearly all the best grades were in such extreme high case, it is not so bad as it seems. Two of our largest and most liberal buyers were off the market owing to the wetness of the tobacco.

On Friday the tobacco was in better condition than any other day of the week and prices were fairly good—all grades fully $2 higher than any previous day. Don't bring your tobacco to market wet.

We believe from now on the market will be satisfactory for all tobacco in good condition.

W. E. CLIFT, Supervisor.

DOLL AUCTION PRETTY AND SUC-CESSFUL EVENT.

The unique and entertaining doll auction held by the Woman's Club at Miss Luman's store on Saturday attracted quite a crowd, and in consequence a check for $25 will be sent to the Health League by the Woman's Club. There surely were all sorts and conditions of dolls, from those daintily dressed by the members themselves, to the "Belgian Refugees," in homespun and wooden shoes. The ladies wish to offer their sincere gratitude to the clever auctioneer, Mr. Rucker of the Home warehouse, who so cheerfully gave his services, and to Miss Luman for donating her spacious store in which to hold the auction.

A big revival at the Ebenezer Presbyterian church at Cottageville, Lewis county, has just closed with thirty-five additions to the church.
State Evangelist Brown, who had charge of the revival, will conduct a revival at the First Presbyterian church in this city early in January.

HEAR HIM--WHO IS HE?

Sylvester A. Long, the popular and experienced lecturer, will be at the High School Wednesday night, December 16. After having appeared at Austin, Minn., for five different times, the Herald of that city says, "Long leads.
Perhaps the most popular all-round lecturer on our program." The fact that he has appeared several times on the platform of such cities as Canton, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus and Washington is evidence of his popularity and charms. His lectures are said to be "Mosaics of great truths laid in a cement of humor." Reserved seats at Williams Drug Store.

DEATH OF HON. JAMES T. BUFORD

Word was received Saturday by Mrs.
John Roper of Lexington street of the death of her brother-in-law, Hon. James T. Buford, at the Anchorage Sanitarium early Saturday morning. Deceased suffered a nervous breakdown and his health declined very rapidly after the death of his wife at Frankfort several months ago.

Mr. Buford was quite prominent in the political affairs at the State Capitol and was a practicing attorney. He served one term as Representative of Franklin county, but after that time he stepped out of the political ring on account of ill health.

The funeral will take place this afternoon from the home of his brother, Mr. Samuel Buford in Louisville, and the remains will be taken to Frankfort for interment.

COATS

Women's good looking Coats. Satin-lined and finished as such good coats should be. Price $10—and it's mighty seldom such coats as these can be bought for so little.

The 2 to 12 year old needs good protective clothing these cold days. And of course, no matter how little the wearer is, she must have a pretty coat. We are showing some late New York models as smart looking as they are good in material and tailoring. A wide price range from $2½ to $10.

WHICH? BROADCLOTH OR GABERDINE?

Both are equally fashionable and serviceable for suits and dresses. We are fortunate in having exceptional qualities in various weights. Broadcloth $1 to $2½. Gaberdines 50c to $1.75.

We will gladly pack a Christmas dress pattern in a pretty box. Different kinds from which to choose. Crepe, faille, taffeta, satin, moire, brocades and stripes. Black and colors 18 to 42 inches wide. 25c to $2.
